Visiting Causeway's Paris Office

We very much look forward to welcoming you to our Paris office. This guide aims to provide you with all of the information you'll need to know whilst planning your visit, but if you have any remaining questions then please don't hesitate to reach out to Karen Adni (karen.adni@causeway.com) or Camille Trou (camille.trou@causeway.com). The full address for the office is as follows:

How to get here

Visiting by Car

Levallois-Perret sits on the north-western edge of Paris, around 6 km from the city centre. Just pop 134 Rue Danton, 92300 Levallois-Perret into your sat nav to get close, where you'll find our office in the Le Dièse building.

We have two parking spaces available on site, and the entrance to our office parking is at 29 Rue Paul Vaillant Couturier, Levallois-Perret. Alternatively, there are several public pay car parks within a short walk of the office:

- Parking Marcel Cerdan (Levaparc), 145 Rue Danton, on the same street as the office. Open 24 hours.
- Parking Pompidou (Levaparc), 1 Place Georges Pompidou, close to Pont de Levallois–Bécon metro station. Open 24 hours.
- Pont de Levallois–Bécon – Georges Pompidou (Zenpark), 41 Rue André Citroën, an indoor car park about a 3-minute walk from the metro station. Open 24/7, with a maximum height of 1.9 m and no electric vehicle charging.

Please check current rates and opening hours with each operator before you travel.

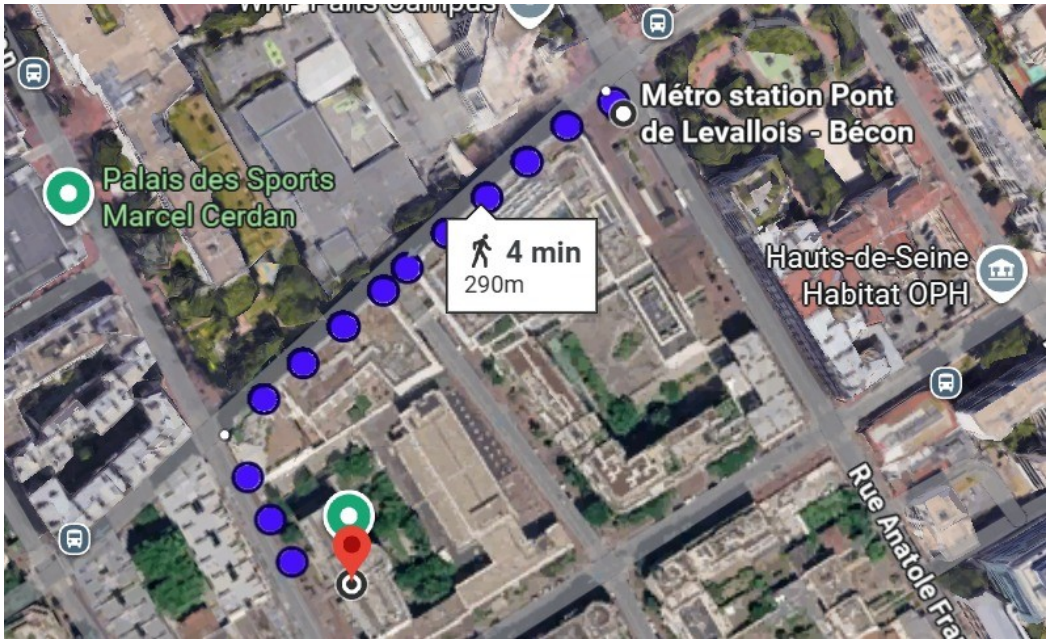

Visiting by Metro

Our office is just a short 4-minute walk (290 m) from Pont de Levallois–Bécon, the final stop on Metro line 3, which runs across Paris.

Upon your arrival at Pont de Levallois–Bécon, leave the station by Exit 3, Rue Anatole France. Turn right onto Rue Baudin, then take the second left onto Rue Danton. You'll find our office at no. 134, in the Le Dièse building next to the On Air gym.

Walking route from Pont de Levallois–Bécon station to the office: about 4 minutes, 290 m.

Visiting by Bus and Train

Bus lines 94, 174 and 274 stop at Anatole France, about a 5-minute walk from the office, and the N16 and N52 night buses stop there too. Clichy–Levallois station (Transilien line L) is around a 20-minute walk away, so we recommend the metro instead.
